Volunteers at Physicians' Clinic of Iowa Medical Pavilion are a vital part of the healthcare we provide to the thousands of patients who visit us each year.

Volunteers provide exceptional care and understanding by taking the time to give patients and their families the extra help and the listening ear they need so much during their visit.

Every member of our volunteer staff assists in providing excellent support services throughout the entire specialty center and is an important part of the healthcare team.

Reasons to join the PCI Medical Pavilion team:

1. Make a difference in your community
2. Positively impact the lives of others
3. Meet new people
4. Share your time and talents
5. Be part of dynamic team

We are a close-knit team in which lasting friendships are built. We recognize the talents and experience our volunteers bring to patients and their families.
